

Legislative Update "Water's Worth It Day"

The Massachusetts Water Pollution Control Association, in collaboration with the Massachusetts Water Works Association, American Council of Engineering Companies, New England Water Environment Association, and the New England Interstate Water Pollution Control Commission, cordially invites you to attend the joint Legislative Update at the State House on May 15, 2018. This year's keynote speaker will be the Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs Matthew Beaton.

This event provides a forum for legislators, mayors, local officials, regulators and water quality professionals to discuss the status of our water infrastructure, learn about future legislation, and hear first-hand about the issues affecting cities and towns throughout the Commonwealth. Additionally, for those interested, there will be the opportunity to individually meet with legislators prior the event. Lunch to be provided.

Date: Tuesday, May 15, 2018

Location: Great Hall, State House, Boston, Massachusetts

Time: 11:15-11:30 AM – Registration

11:45 AM – Great Hall opens for Water's Worth It Day

12:00 PM – Keynote Address – Matthew Beaton, Secretary, Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs
